

Type: TAPESTRY

Origin: FLEMISH

Circa: 17 Century

Size/Feet & Inches: 10'5" x 15'0"

Size/Meters: 3.18 x 4.57

Item Number: 56270

A Flemish mythological tapestry from the 17th century, depicting the Spartan king, Menelaus, seated at left, sending his brother Agamemnon and the Greek troops to Troy to recover his wife, Helen, who had been abducted by Paris, thus starting the Trojan War. Enclosed within a narrow monochromatic border. Wool with silk inlay.